

IDEA PROPOSAL

EXPENSE TRACKER

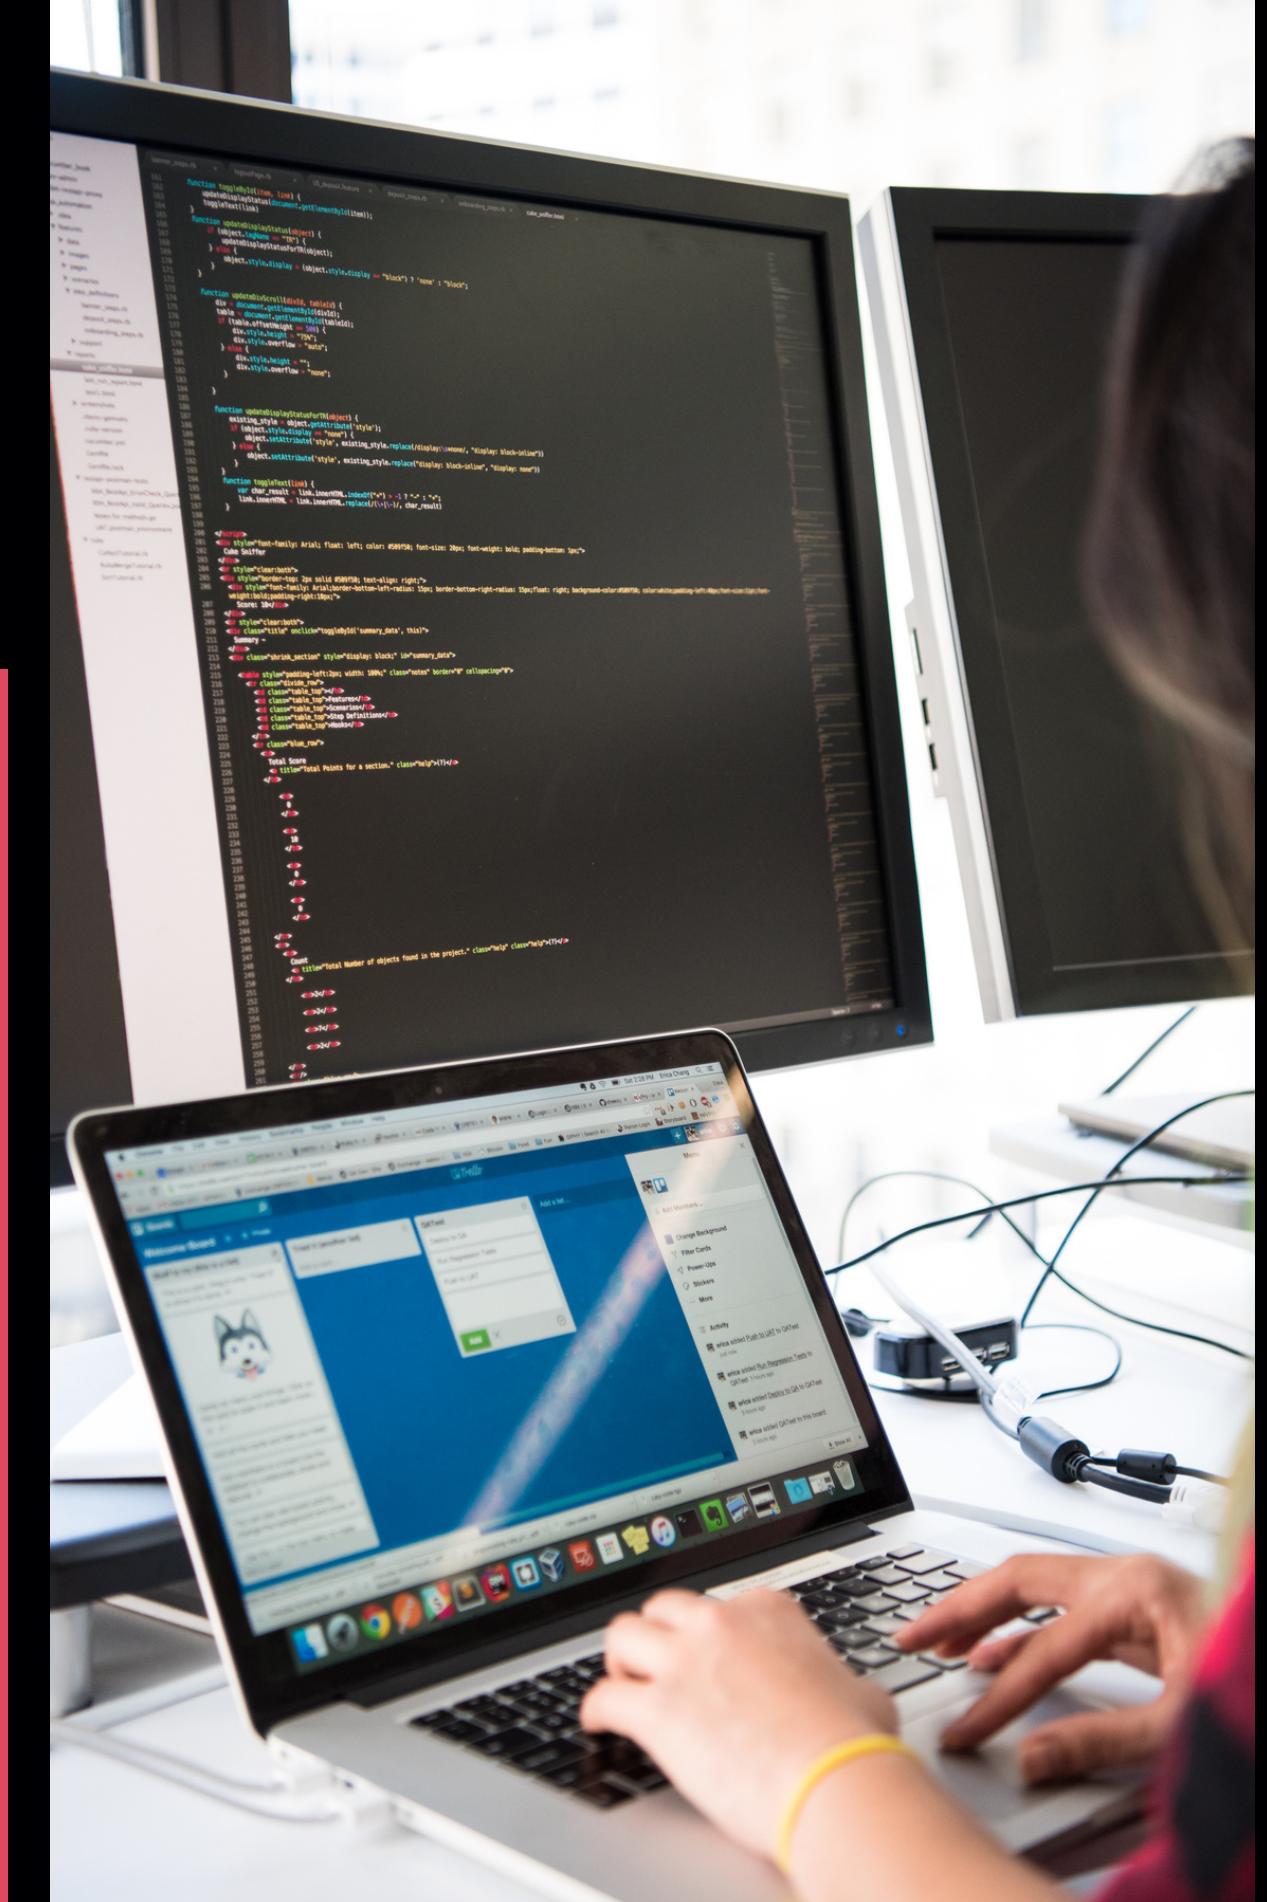

Problem Statement

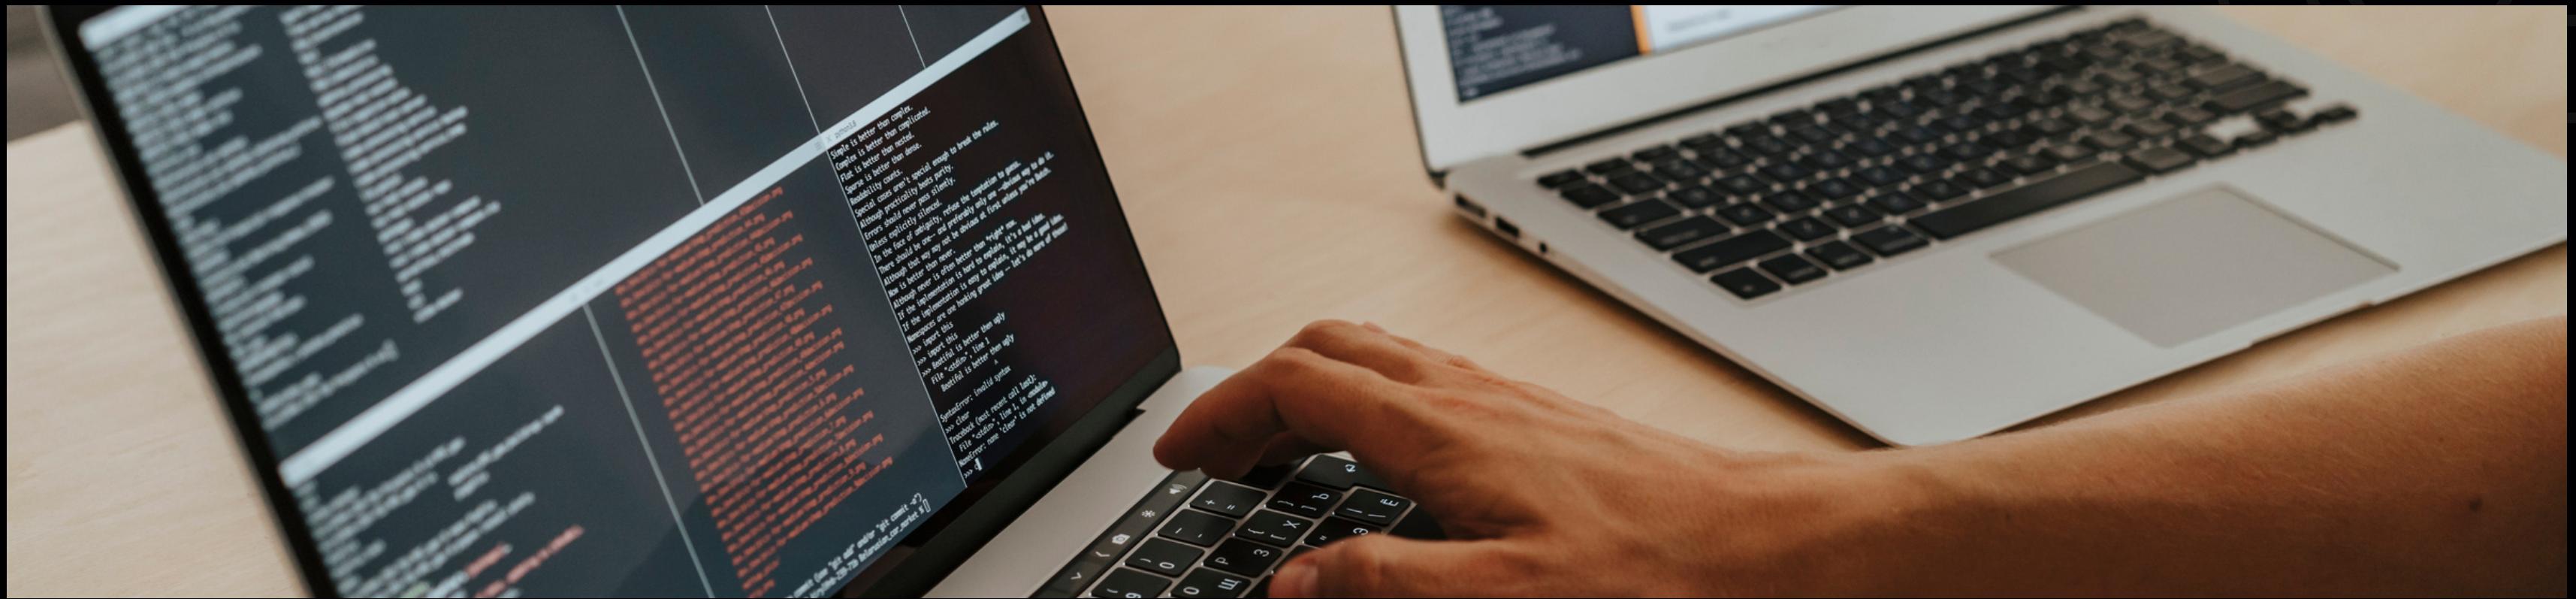

One of the major problems many people face is managing their home budget and tracking their day-to-day expenses. While there are several budgeting apps, there is still room for apps with additional features that will personalize the user experience.

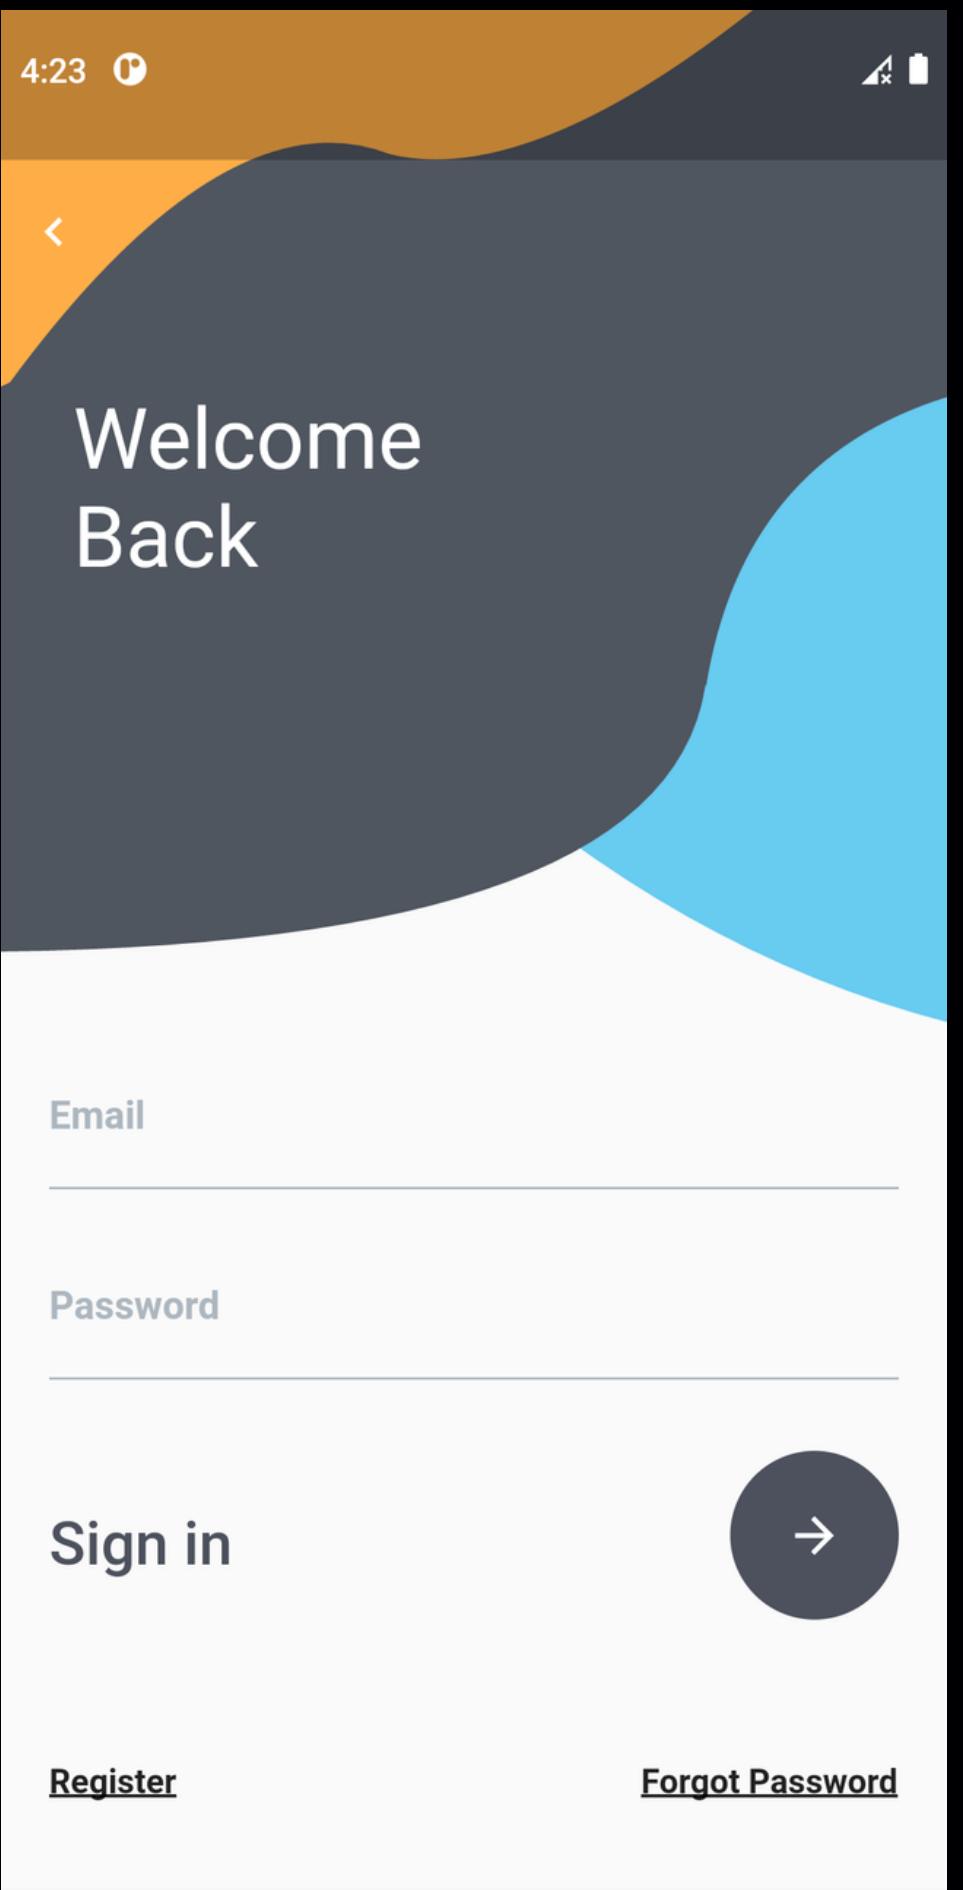

Solution

Expense Tracker helps you to overcome the problem with features such as allow user to feed in daily transactions that will enable the user to manage their expense lists and also to set their monthly expense target. The app will also display a stats page with graph chart data.
